SOURCES OF FURTHER INFORMATION

Arranging an Outing

Contact your local Chamber of Commerce for the names of volunteer or senior citizen groups in your community. These groups often assist in providing escort and transportation services.

Canal Travel (Rideau & Trent)

Call or write for special Canadian senior rates information for the Trent and Rideau Canals, Trent-Severn Waterway Office, P.O. Box 567, Peterborough, K9J 6Z6
Tel: (705) 742-9267; or Rideau Canal Office, 12 Maple Ave. N., Smith Falls, K7A 1Z5.
Tel: (613) 283-5170.

Community Information

The Community Information Centre of Metropolitan Toronto publishes an information booklet dealing with the community, financial, recreational and social concerns of senior citizens. They also offer a 24-hour telephone enquiry service. This organization may be contacted at 590 Jarvis St., 5th Floor, Toronto M4Y 2J4. Tel: (416) 392-0505.

Many other communities throughout the province offer similar Community Information Centres - check your local telephone directory.

Group Tours

Plan well in advance. Contact all of the establishments you plan on visiting; they usually require advance notice for group tours. Also they may have a further reduction for senior citizens' groups.

Identification

Many establishments offering special rates to senior citizens request proof of age, i.e. senior citizen's card or a birth certificate. Ontario residents 65 years of age or more will find the Ontario Senior Citizen's Privilege Card useful for this purpose and may obtain one by applying to the Ministry of Health, Finance & Accounting Branch, Drug Benefit Plan, P.O. Box 78, Kingston, K7L 5K2. Tel: (416) 965-9337 (Toronto), or (613) 548-6552 (Kingston).

Movie Theatres

Most movie theatre chains offer special rates for senior citizens. There is not one pass for all chains, as they all issue their own, so it is necessary to contact the theatre(s) of your choice to obtain their seniors' pass.

Live Theatre

Many live theatre companies and theatre festivals such as Shaw and Stratford offer substantially reduced rates for seniors. Contact them directly for information.

Provincial Parks

Residents of Ontario aged 65 or over are admitted free of charge to Ontario Provincial Parks (including St. Lawrence Parks and Niagara Parks) for day use. Half-rate camping fees are charged for Friday and Saturday. Camping is free Sunday to Thursday. Proof of age and residence may be requested.

National Parks

To residents of Canada, 65 years of age or more, free entry for day visits only is granted on presentation of driver's licence or a Senior's card and vehicle registration permit. There is no free camping offered to seniors in National Parks.
